Airmic Conference 2021 – 5 - 6 October

ATTENDEE GUIDANCE - COVID-19 SAFETY MEASURES

Our aim

Our aim is to make everyone feel safe and comfortable enough to enjoy the conference fully. Although most government restrictions have been lifted, we have decided to retain some protocols to help protect us all.

Our venue

We have worked closely with the Brighton Conference Centre, our external advisors and the exhibitors to provide a safe environment. The venue has the We're Good to Go certification provided by Visit Britain. Please continue to take simple precautions such as the use of hand sanitisers (we will be providing plenty of those). We will be asking everyone to wear a face covering in some designated areas which will be clearly marked (we will be providing face coverings if you need them). Pre-packed but delicious 'grab-and-go' meals created by the venue chefs will be prepared for you.

Checking in at Brighton

You should not attend the event if you or anyone you live with have tested positive for Covid-19 and have been asked to self-isolate.

You will need to present ONE of the below when you FIRST enter the conference:

A valid NHS Covid Pass. You can present this via the NHS COVID Pass within the NHS App, or an internationally recognised equivalent. If you do not have a smart phone, please click here, for details of how to request an NHS COVID Pass letter;

OR

An NHS vaccination card which shows you have received both doses of a vaccination at least 14 days prior to 5th October;

OR

Proof of a negative Lateral Flow Test. You can present this via the NHS App or a text message or email from NHS Test and Trace. This test must be taken within 48 hours prior to attending the Conference

If you forget bring any of the above to the conference , we will have processes in place at the venue that you can follow to admit you to the conference.

If you have any questions about your access to the conference, please contact events@airmic.com

Consideration to others

All attendees must agree to be considerate to those around them at all times and respectful of all the safety measures in place.

Questions?

If you have any questions about these safety measures, please contact: events@airmic.com

We look forward to welcoming you in Brighton!
